

COP21: climate change march¹

On 29th November 2015 some 50,000 people marched through central London to demand that global leaders attending the Paris climate change conference, known as COP21, take urgent action to tackle climate change and agree a long-term international deal to limit carbon emissions.

The event was the largest of about 2,500 demonstrations that took place around the world.¹

Deon

1.Marshall.C (2015)

COP21: Thousands join London climate change march

BBC News: (29/11/2015)

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-34957789>

